Course Challenge Series:

For the Osage Grove CC, Bill will TD'ing the event with me. Need to make sure we have the layout of the baskets.

Leagues: Spring meeting will be March 16th. First week of play will be that following Wednesday.

Tournaments:

Bluegrass Open May 25th Had 97 People. Vandemark Won

The Big 3 is this weekend Adv and Int is full. Will not use the Mando on 24. Will most likely use the short pad on hole 15 (Old 9). Jason will walk this week to see what needs to be fixed.

Idlewild Open: has a website theidlewildopen.com.

Frisch's is still working with Adam and Jason on a possible $5000 sponsorship 50% donation.

Bill may not be working on the course. Going to have a meeting with Fred to discuss the course. Talked with park about getting a beer garden set up for the Idlewild Open. Large field will be burned this year.

FPO: Sign ups will be live 6:00 on Friday. Pros and Ams and different Courses 20 holes at each.

Next meeting go over the entry fees and make some decisions for the Pig. Want to write the description of the pig. Awards; Joe is thinking about medals instead of full on trophies.

For Pete's King of the Hill tournament. There were 10 Anderson and 5 Turpin players, Anderson won. Bradley Caldwell was at the top.

Park Liaison:

Hamilton County: Joe talked with Becky Osinski about Winton Woods. They will be evaluating the four disc golf courses, in their upcoming Park & Facility Master Planning. They will be adding Joe to the stakeholder list so that he can be involved in the process.

Katherine Carver is the Chief of Real Estate overseeing the lease agreement currently in place with Great Parks at Winton Woods. She has contacted Joe about working with the Club and Winton Woods to fix and improve the disc golf course. She is talking with Great Parks about their master plan, which includes improvements to all four courses. She highly recommends that they work with us.
